Short Description of the Program (within 200 words)

A One Day State Level Seminar on "An Environmentalist Reading of Seamus Heaney's Seeing Things" was organized by the Department of English in collaboration with IQAC on 26.03.2022. Sri Apurba Sarkar, GB President, was the Chief Patron. Sri Jaydev Ghatak, GB member was the Patron of the seminar. Dr Atish Chandra Ghosh, Principal of Raja Birendra Chandra College, was the Chairman of Organizing Committee. Mrs Arpita Pal , HOD of Department of English was the Organising Secretary. Mr Tritas Mondal, SACT of English Department, was the convener. Dr Anindita Saha , Assistant Professor of English, Rani Dhanya Kumari College, was the honourable Speaker. Mr Shyamal Acharya , the anchor of the seminar clearly explained the meaning of the words "environmentalist reading", and why it is important in literature review . He also briefly described the concept of environmental awareness as can be found in the writings of Seamus Heaney. Dr Atish Chandra Ghosh, respected Principal, in his brief speech expressed hope that this seminar would be enjoyable for the audience. The lecture by Dr Anindita Saha , the esteemed Resource Person, was excellent, succinct and lucid. At first she began with the term "environment" and how it has become a new trend in literary review to examine various literary pieces from the environmental approach. Then she extensively explained the concept of environmentalism as described in different works of Heaney. Next she analysed Seeing Things from the environmentalist's approach. It was an interesting and lively lecture. Dr Mokbul Rahaman, Librarian and IQAC Coordinator, delivered the Vote of Thanks.

The seminar has enriched the audience immensely. It was an informative and enjoyable session.
