Short Description	The program was inaugurated by lighting the lamp. The Teacher – in - charge delivered a welcome address. New economic policy was introduced in 1991 in India followed by signing WTO. Main purpose of this policy was to open up the economy in global perspective to ensure the economic growth and increase in competition as well as efficiency. It is no doubt that economic growth was increased in steady rate but due to labour intensive country the wealth accumulated in the hand of few corporate as well as most labour force in our courtly engaged in informal sector so either their income deceased or they were fired. Ultimately due to lack of
