Short Description of the Program (within 200 words)

A One Day State Level Webinar on "Indian Classical Literature: Theoretical and Pragmatic Approaches" was organised by the Department of English of Raja Birendra Chandra College in collaboration with IQAC on 25.06.2023. Sri Apurba Sarkar, GB President, was the Chief Patron. Sri Jaydev Ghatak, GB member was the Patron of the seminar. Dr Atish Chandra Ghosh, Principal of Raja Birendra Chandra College, was the Organising Chairman. Mrs Arpita Pal , HOD of Department of English was the Organising Secretary. Mr Tritas Mondal, SACT of the Department of English, was the Convener. Dr Shyamal Acharya, SACT of English, was the Key Note Speaker. Dr Abu Siddik, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Plassey College, Plassey, Nadia and Mr Subhajit Das, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Rani Dhanya Kumari College, Jiaganj, Murshidabad were the honourable Speakers . Mrs Arpita Pal , the anchor of the webinar, briefly explained the historical and social background of Indian Classical Literature. Dr Atish Chandra Ghosh, respected Principal, in his brief speech expressed hope that this seminar would be fruitful in making various concepts regarding Indian Classical Literature clear for the audience. Dr Shyamal Acharya, the Key Note Speaker, first explained what classical literature is. He also explained in detail the origin and flourish of Indian classical literature. Very lucidly he prepared the audience for the next speech by explaining the importance of studying Indian classical literature . The lecture by Mr Subhajit Das, the first esteemed Resource Person, was excellent, succinct and lucid. The title of his speech was "Dulce et Utile: Exploring Kalidasa's AbhijnanaSakuntalam". At first he began with the meaning of the term "Dulce et Utile" and then he clarified how the term is applicable to AbhijnanaSakuntalam. He also clarified various aspects of the play, thus illustrating the need to explore it even today. His speech was lucid and
